

Cookie Policy

Momentvm Opvs values the privacy and protection of its users' personal data. In this regard, we clarify that this website does not retain its own cookies nor does it store browsing information for the purpose of identifying or tracking visitors.

1. Definition of Cookies

Cookies are small text files, stored on the user's device through the browser, which aim to facilitate navigation, enable certain functionalities, or collect technical information about access to the website.

2. Use on This Website

Momentvm Opvs expressly declares that it does not use its own cookies to collect, store, or process users' personal data.

However, we emphasize that certain integrated third-party content, such as map services (Google Maps) or embedded videos, may use cookies unrelated to Momentvm Opvs' management. In these cases, the responsibility for the use and management of these cookies lies exclusively with said third parties.

3. User Consent and Control

The user may, at any time, configure their internet browser to block or delete cookies. We emphasize that such action will not compromise the experience or the functioning of this website, as Momentvm Opvs does not use its own cookies.

4. Commitment to Transparency

Momentvm Opvs is committed to keeping navigation on its website free from tracking and in compliance with Law No. 13.709/2018 (LGPD).
